THE ELON PEACE INITIATIVE

A SEVEN-PART COMPREHENSIVE PLAN TOWARD PEACE IN THE MIDDLE EAST

1. Government Decision: Declaring the Palestinian Authority an enemy.
2. Military Action: Destroy terror infrastructure by removing all terrorists, weapons and bomb factories from Judea, Samaria & Gaza.
3. Nullify the Oslo Accords and dismantle the Palestinian Authority.
4. Following the cessation of hostilities, negotiations will commence under international auspices to solve the refugee problem through their relocation to Arab countries and the dismantling of refugee camps.
5. Acceptance of two countries for two people on two sides of the Jordan: the Jordanian-Palestinian state with Amman as its capital, and the Jewish state with Jerusalem as its capital.
6. Arabs remaining in Judea, Samaria & Gaza become citizens of the Jordanian-Palestinian state. Arab Palestinians holding Israeli citizenship will be offered alternate citizenship in the Jordanian-Palestinian state.
7. If the Arabs of Judea, Samaria & Gaza breach the terms of this plan, they will be expelled to their state on the other side of the Jordan River.

THE LAND OF ISRAEL FOR THE PEOPLE OF ISRAEL

Did you know...?

- The Jewish people existed 2000 years before the establishment of Islam.
- Jerusalem has been the Jewish capital for over 3,300 years, but was never an Arab capital.
- Jerusalem is mentioned 700 times in the Bible, while the Koran does not contain a single reference to Jerusalem.
- There has been a Jewish majority in Jerusalem since before 1850.
- The Jewish People pray facing Jerusalem, while the Arabs pray with their backs to Jerusalem, towards Mecca.
- The PLO was established in 1964 while east Jerusalem and the West Bank were under their control, with the aim of liberating the rest of Israel.
- The Arabs have 500 times more area than Israel .
- The Arabs have 21 states;
The Jews have only one homeland.

“And the Lord spoke to Moses in the plains of Moab by the Jordan, at Jericho, saying: Speak to the Children of Israel and say to them: When you cross the Jordan to the land of Canaan, you shall drive out all the inhabitants of the Land before you; and you shall destroy all their prostration stones; all their molten images shall you destroy; and all their high places shall you demolish. You shall possess the Land and you shall settle in it, for to you have I given the Land to possess it . . . But if you do not drive out the inhabitants of the Land before you, those of them whom you leave shall be pricks in your eyes and thorns in your sides, and they will harass you upon the Land in which you dwell.”

THERE IS A PALESTINIAN STATE - IT IS JORDAN

JORDAN IS PALESTINE

In 1917, the British government issued the Balfour Declaration calling for the creation of a Jewish Homeland in all of Palestine-Biblical Land of Israel. This promise was broken when the British handed the eastern bank of the Jordan River to the Hashemites of Saudi Arabia in 1922.

Today, Israel (including Judea, Samaria & Gaza) constitutes 24% of the area designated for the Jewish homeland. Jordan comprises 76% of Palestine-Biblical Land of Israel and has a 70% Palestinian Arab majority.

Moledet's peace plan:
TWO STATES FOR TWO PEOPLE ON TWO SIDES OF THE JORDAN RIVER

IS THERE SUPPORT FOR TRANSFER?

KING HUSSEIN OF
JORDAN, 1981:
*"The truth is that
Jordan is Palestine and Palestine is Jordan."*

IS THERE SUPPORT FOR TRANSFER?

YITZCHAK RABIN,
PRIME MINISTER:
“The refugee problem is one of the central problems to the Arab-Israeli conflict. But problems of this kind are solved by moving populations in one place or another. The USSR brought about changes in Eastern Europe’s border, that led to the population transfer of three million people... Surely there is no reason to use force, as was done in the USSR, but it is possible, in my opinion, to have population exchange on a basis other than force.”

SOLVING THE REFUGEE PROBLEM

The number of Arab refugees from the 1948 war of Independence remains close to three and a half million. In Gaza alone, an astonishing 800,000 of the 1,400,000 Arab inhabitants are refugees. These people live in squalid, subhuman conditions, within a thin strip of land that cannot contain such numbers.

These people are the victims of their own leaders, their status as refugees frozen despite the fact that all other refugees around the world from that era have been resettled. Arabs leaders continue to abuse their own people, making them promises and giving them false hope for the future. It is on the basis of this false hope that they now blow themselves up, murdering innocent children and families. These people are living the illusion of a promise for a better future, when really they are pawns in the political aspirations of their leaders.

Now, after fifty-five years of life in subhuman conditions, the international community must lift the ban on resettlement for these people. They must work to dismantle the refugee camps and build them new lives. The world cannot stand by silently while these camps stagnate, promoting hatred and suffering for them and others.

Moledet is the only party that consistently demands a solution to this problem. Member of Knesset Benny Elon is the only politician who continues to call for a clear policy that will deal with the refugees within the framework of any proposed peace plan. This is vital – politically, strategically, and morally. Israel’s allies must realize the enormous ramifications of avoiding a resolution of the refugees’ plight, and the U.S. should join to work towards a viable international resolution that includes successful resettlement of these people.

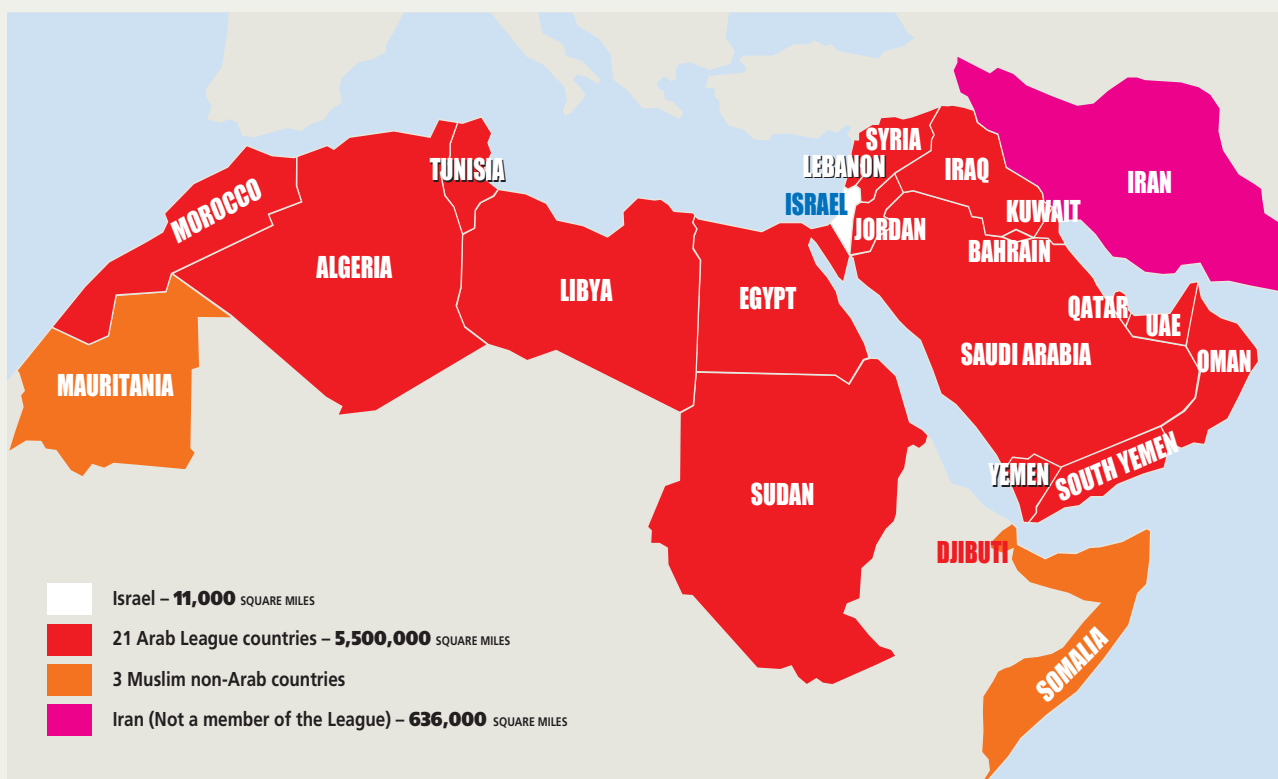

MOSHE DAYAN:
“Sooner or later, the Arabs will have to complete the transfer and absorb the 1948 Palestinian refugees in their lands. Israel will not accept them - not voluntarily and not by force.”

DAVID BEN GURION:
“We must first dismiss the preconception that this transfer is not feasible. It is no less than an act of justice to transfer the Arabs in our State to the Arab regions.”

DAVID VS. GOLIATH?

THE ARABS HAVE 500 TIMES MORE AREA THAN ISRAEL

ARABS: In 1948 the Arab leaders told their people to leave Israel, promising that they would return after removing the Jews from the land. 60% of the refugees left without ever sighting one Israeli soldier.

ARABS: The number of Arab refugees who left Israel in 1948 has been estimated at 750,000.

ARABS: The Arab refugees were intentionally not absorbed as residents of their host Arab country, despite the vast lands at their disposal. Of the 100 million people who became refugees since World War II, this is the only group not absorbed thus far. Instead, these unfortunate people became pawns in the hands of their own Arab leadership.

JEWS: The Jewish refugees were forced to flee their homes in Arab countries as a result of cruel leadership, deathly pogroms and all their property was confiscated.

JEWS: The number of Jewish refugees from Arab lands is approximately 850,000.

JEWS: Each and every Jewish refugee from around the world who came to the State of Israel was successfully absorbed in this country which is no larger than the State of New Jersey.

PUBLIC SUPPORT IN ISRAEL

ISRAEL RADIO:

More than 20% of the general population support the transfer of the Arab population from Israel

(February 2, 2002)

MAARIV NEWSPAPER:

35% of the general population support transfer of the Arabs from Judea and Samaria

(February 15, 2002)

21% of the public said they would vote for a Transfer party in the next elections (while only 22% said they would vote Labor!)

(April 26, 2002)

HAARETZ NEWSPAPER:

46% of Israelis support transfer, according to a study done by Tel Aviv University's Jaffee Center for Strategic Studies,

WE MUST OFFER AN ALTERNATIVE

Breaking the Transfer Taboo

By M.K. Binyamin Elon

Today, more than ever, people want to hear what Israel's political Right has to say. We cannot merely condemn the Oslo process; we must offer an alternative. And we cannot ignore the demographic problem as raised by the Left. The idea of population exchange is one that has been promoted over the years, often scoffed at, or at least disregarded as unfeasible. But it is this very tool that is the key to peace in the Middle East.

Is transfer moral? This solution is moral for both Jews, who have no other homeland, and for the Palestinian refugees whose cultural homeland is in Arab countries, specifically Jordan. The world has now reached the understanding that there is no peace in bi-national countries, and that there is a need for separation.

Is transfer acceptable? It seems that the region, in fact the world, is not prepared to help the refugees or to resettle them in their lands. It is also a fact that there are no Arab leaders who have agreed to any Zionist solution. Has any Arab leader agreed to the Peres plan, which leaves Jerusalem in Jewish hands and the Israel Defense Forces on the Jordanian border? The State of Israel must demand the relocation of the refugees as a precondition for peace within any future negotiations. We cannot relinquish these lands, and we cannot live peacefully with the Arab population currently living in them. We also cannot succumb to the current, politically-correct 'solution' – the creation of an Arab terrorist state, within the borders of our own country, bent on our ultimate destruction and willing to sacrifice its women and children towards this end. Our very existence is at stake.

Is transfer practical? Population transfer is as practical as the entire Zionist enterprise – the very establishment of a Jewish entity in the midst of a sea of hostility, seemed impossible. The war of Independence in 1948, with Israel surrounded by enemy troops, seemed a sure loss for the fledgling State. We were victorious then and continue to be so throughout our short existence. Our faith, coupled with our lack of alternative, has kept us here standing strong, and we will continue to thrive. Transfer is practical, as long as we search for a true partner in the Arab world, someone who realizes that there is no choice and this must be the way to peace.

The Moledet Party platform includes three types of transfer:

1. Voluntary transfer – We will encourage the Arabs of Judea, Samaria & Gaza to desire transfer, through financial means and other incentives.

2. Transfer during war – The War of Independence created geographic and demographic changes, after Arab leaders told their people to flee, expecting to return after crushing the Jews. The Arab leadership must realize that if they cannot live here together with us in peace, they will not live here together with us at all.
3. Transfer through international agreement – Occurs when two countries sign an agreement stating that for peace, citizens must be moved from place to place. This was the case for Jews in the Sinai within the framework of the peace treaty between Israel and Egypt, and this has been the model for countries around the world. We can implement this here too, under international auspices, agreeing to two states for two people on two sides of the Jordan River.

The two sides of the Jordan River, comprising the Biblical Land of Israel and Balfour's Palestine, are both rightfully ours. Regrettably, the eastern bank already contains an Arab-Palestinian state. It was Churchill who made the critical mistake of creating the Hashemite Kingdom in eastern Palestine, applying the name 'Jordan'. The truth is that even today, over 70% of Jordan's citizens are Palestinians. The King of Jordan is well aware of the fact that Arafat is only waiting for the right moment; that after he receives a small state west of the Jordan River, he will do all he can to connect it, under his rule, to the Palestinian state called Jordan.

Now, when Arafat's true intentions have been uncovered, we must turn to the Jordanian option for peace in this region. If and when we have a partner for diplomatic negotiations, we can establish two parliaments, one in Amman and one in Jerusalem; two states for two peoples who can live in peace on two sides of the Jordan River.

TRANSFER OF RIGHTS

Jordan is Palestine. The Arab residents of Judea and Samaria can be transferred, without removing them from their homes. They will be granted citizenship in the Palestinian Arab state with Amman as their capital. This is conditional to the dismantling of the refugee camps, and the relocation of the refugees to housing within Jordan, the Arab League or other states. Israeli Arabs who choose not to declare their loyalty to the Jewish State, can also vote for the Palestinian parliament in Amman – without being removed from their homes. This is the transfer of rights, not people. Should the Arab population of Judea, Samaria & Gaza declare war on us, they will be expelled to their state, on the other side of the Jordan River.

We must realize that the quest for peace in the Middle East is a regional challenge, and it goes hand in hand with the need to eradicate terrorism from all corners of the world.

As we are told: “And I will give peace in the Land, and you shall lie down, and none shall make you afraid; and I will remove evil beasts from the land, and the sword shall not go through your Land..” (LEVITICUS, 26:6)

RECHAVAM ZEEVI
Moledet founder assassinated in 2001

“The solution to the Arab-Israeli conflict and the peace between them will be achieved by the parting of the two nations. The Jews – in the Land of Israel, and the Arabs - in the Arab countries. This will be the next stage of the population exchange that began with the transfer of Jews from Arab-Islamic countries to Israel. Now we must act to transfer the Arab population of Judea, Samaria and Gaza to Arab countries.”

THE NOBEL PRIZE FOR TRANSFER THAT BROUGHT PEACE

Dr. Fridtjof Nansen of Norway, then head of the League of Nations' High Commission for Refugees, was awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1922.

That year, at the request of the Greek government and with the approval of the League of Nations, Nansen tried to solve the problem of the Greek refugees who poured into their native land from their homes in Asia Minor after the Greek army had been defeated by the Turks. Nansen arranged an exchange of about 1,250,000 Greeks living on Turkish soil for about 500,000 Turks living in Greece, with appropriate indemnification and provisions for giving them the opportunity for a new start in life.

Prior to this population transfer, each minority group was a source of conflict. Today, Greece and Turkey maintain peaceful diplomatic relations. One of his many accomplishments, Dr. Nansen received the Nobel Peace Prize for his transfer solution.

THE NOBEL PRIZE FOR THE OSLO ACCORDS THAT BROUGHT WAR

In 1993 the Oslo Accords were signed by the Rabin-Peres Government with the PLO – then the world's largest terrorist organization.

For this agreement, Messrs. Rabin, Peres and Arafat were awarded the Nobel Peace Prize in 1994. The Oslo Accords granted the PLO terrorist organization legitimacy, territory, weapons, media outlets, international recognition and monetary assistance.

The international contributions that were intended for the benefit of Arab residents of Judea, Samaria & Gaza instead made their way to the personal accounts of PLO bosses or were used to fund terrorism. Oslo worsened anti-Israel and anti-Jewish incitement, encouraged terrorism and created a terrorist army supplied with smuggled illegal weapons.

In the thirteen years prior to Oslo, 250 Israelis were killed in terror attacks. In the nine years since Oslo was signed, over 1,200 Jews have been murdered and unfortunately, there is no end in sight to the killing of innocent Israelis.

— מולדת — MOLEDDET

Moledet (“Homeland” in Hebrew) is an ideological political party in Israel that embraces the idea of population transfer as an integral part of a comprehensive plan to achieve real peace between the Jews and the Arabs living in the Land of Israel. Moledet was established thirteen years ago by Minister Rechavam Zeevi - known as Gandhi. After Zeevi’s murder at the hands of Arab terrorists on October 17, 2001 in Jerusalem, MK Binyamin Elon became party chairman, and continues to promote his vision.

Moledet has successfully raised the idea of transfer in the public discourse and political arena in both Israel and abroad, within the framework of achieving comprehensive peace in this region. Moledet is also actively involved in establishing these facts on the ground, by encouraging the emigration of displaced and hostile elements from our Land. Over the years, Moledet has worked to strengthen Jewish settlement in all parts of the Land of Israel and to establish high quality of life for its residents, based on Jewish and democratic values and a true caring for the future of our State.

Moledet opposes the establishment of a Palestinian state west of the Jordan River, in addition to the Jordanian-Palestinian state, which already exists east of the Jordan River. Moledet opposes any plan that will bring about the handing over of any land to any other sovereignty. It strongly supports Jewish settlement of Judea, Samaria and Gaza. Moledet is doing everything in its power to thwart plans to divide Jerusalem, by creating a continuous Jewish presence in historic (east) Jerusalem.

Moledet has an active grassroots network, involving adults and youth from all parts of the country. Activists include the religious and secular, young and old, bound together by a unique faith and the belief in the power to take charge of our destiny.

BINYAMIN (BENNY) ELON

Member of Knesset Binyamin Elon, Chairman of the Moledet Party, has been active in Israeli political life for many years. Most recently, he served in Prime Minister Ariel Sharon’s Government as Minister of Tourism, facing the many challenges of such an office in these difficult times. He promoted the development of the ‘Land of the Bible’ tours and enlarged the tourism budget of these areas and of Jerusalem.

Born in 1954, Benny Elon is a ninth-generation Jerusalemite, residing in the community of Beit El for the last twenty years. He is the proud father of six and grandfather of four.

MK Elon is the founder of the Beit Orot Yeshiva on the Mt. of Olives, which he headed until his election to the Knesset in 1996 on the Moledet Party ticket. He then worked to unite the right-wing parties under one larger faction – the National Union.

He has served in the 14th and 15th Knesset and was awarded the “Distinguished Service” citation as voted by his political peers. His parliamentary duties include membership of the Foreign Affairs and Defense Committee, Law and Justice, and Women’s Affairs Committees.

Jerusalem continues to be strengthened by his efforts to reclaim Jewish neighborhoods in all parts of the city, rendering any division of Israel’s capital untenable.
